

General English: Nelson a lively and popular small NZ city

- Nelson is a lively small city in a natural paradise. One of New Zealand's most loved cities. Top of the South Island. Creative character.
- Three National parks an hour from the city centre including the famous Abel Tasman National Park.
- Tree-lined streets, sunniest city in New Zealand, full facilities and cafes.
- Special interests. Leading New Zealand centre for mountain biking trails, kite surfing, rock climbing, sea and river kayaking, green, organic and alternative movements.
- Popular with migrants. Ten percent of Nelson people were born in the UK. Large German, Scandinavian, US and Dutch populations. Also returning New Zealanders.

General English: Perfect learning environment

- Successful family school since 1995 – Owned by teaching professional. 300 students per year averaging 40-120 students. Not a chain school – we have personality.
- Academic specialisation includes Cambridge examinations
- Nelson English Centre is proudly locally owned with strong community connections and a high profile in the community.

So, if you are looking for the perfect New Zealand learning environment, a well-organised school , pleasant small city lifestyle and access to golden beaches and mountains - a good choice.

Nelson outdoor paradise. Nelson English Centre student on sailing trip to Abel Tasman National Park

Community Connections. The Mayor of Nelson Kerry Marshall welcomes Oezlem a Swiss-Turkish student in Nelson English Centre

