

Long term students: Family school with degree options.

- Successful family school since 1995 – Owned by teaching professional. 300 students per year. (Average roll: 40-120)
- We offer English plus Degrees through our partnership with NMIT (Nelson Marlborough Institute of Technology)
- Double enrolment: English plus Commerce, IT, Design Degrees and Use of NMIT library learning centre.
- Crown English. Possible to transfer to our Auckland partner school Crown English.
- Nelson English Centre has strong community connections and a high profile in the community
- We care. Homestay and welfare staff and first language counsellors.

Long term students: Nelson pleasant secure small campus city

- Nelson – a convenient small campus city with clear climate and good facilities.
- Family-friendly city. The fastest growing population sector in Nelson is families migrating to Nelson with their children. Big increases from UK, Germany, Scandinavia, US and returning New Zealand families.
- Fourth busiest airport in New Zealand. Easy access.

So if you are looking to study a degree, and don't want to study in a big city, we offer a friendly, safe first stop so you can get a solid foundation in English before continuing on for further study

Degree study in Nelson. NMIT and NEC heads conclude further study partnership in February 2009 (Tony Gray of Nelson Marlborough Institute of Technology and James Upton of Nelson English Centre)

Community Connections. The Mayor of Nelson Kerry Marshall welcomes Oezlem, a Swiss-Turkish student to Nelson and Nelson English Centre.

